ILLINOIS STATE NORMAL UNIVERSITY

The Class of 1963

February 4, 1963

Dear Senior:

Here we are in the last semester of our college career and we are sure that you, as well as the rest of the classmembers, are looking forward to that final day - GRADUATION. We, the members of your Advisory Board, are, therefore, sponsoring a special brief meeting for all Seniors, to give you the available information concerning this occasion.

MEETING FOR WHOM:	All Seniors
PLACE:	University Union 3rd Fl Lounge
DATE:	Thursday, February 14, 1963
TIME:	7:30 Sharp!

Some of the information which will be covered is:

1. Graduation Announcements
2. Graduation Fees
3. Caps and Gowns
4. Explanation of Graduation Ceremony
5. Baccalaureate Ceremony

In addition to graduation information, Mr. Francis Wade of the University Alumni Association will explain the purpose and benefits of the organization. Since the Alumni Association was founded 100 years ago, we, as the "Centennial Class", will play an important part in the Founders' Day program on February 18.

It is also our purpose to inform you of an informal dance sponsored by the Class of '63 coming up on Friday, February 15, 1963, in the University Union Ballroom. The proceeds of the dance will be used as our class pledge to the ISNU Foundation Alumni Fund.

For your benefit as well as ours, we hope to see you at both the meeting and the dance.

Sincerely,

Senior Class Advisory Board
